Dear Parents/Carers,

As part of your child's education at Engaines Primary School, we promote personal well-being and development through a comprehensive Personal, Social, Health and Economic (PSHE) education programme. PSHE education is the curriculum subject that gives children the knowledge, understanding, attitudes and practical skills to live safe, healthy, productive lives and meet their full potential.

We wrote to you during the Summer Term informing you that we were planning to invite you to a parent consultation and information evening on 1st October regarding our PSHE curriculum. However, due to the current Government advice regarding social distancing, it is with regret that we will not be able to continue with this event. The parent consultation period regarding our PSHE curriculum will end on Friday 23rd October. Therefore, should you have any comments or questions regarding our PSHE curriculum, please ensure that you share these with us before this date so that we can take your views into consideration.

We would like to remind you that our draft PSHE Policy and our draft RSE Policy (Relationships and Sex Education) can be viewed on our website at <https://www.engainesprimaryschool.co.uk/about-us/policies> Our planned curriculum map for PSHE (Including all Relationships and Sex Education content) can be found in Appendix 1 of both of the policies mentioned above. We would also like to remind you that PSHE education is taught throughout the school in every year group and is monitored and reviewed regularly by the staff and governing body. All PSHE teaching takes place in a safe learning environment and is underpinned by our school ethos and values.

If you have any questions or comments regarding our PSHE curriculum, please feel free to email these to Mrs Hyde at Admin@engaines.essex.sch.uk

Yours faithfully,

Mandy Elmer
